Popular Couple Wed.

The following from the Las Vegas Optic of Wednesday will be of interest to Santa Feans:

This morning at 2 o'clock Miss Marie Glendon and Mr. Charles Albert St. Louis were joined in marriage at the residence of the bride's mother, in the presence of a large gathering of friends. The wedding was an elaborate affair. They were six bridesmaids and six groomsmen. The bride wore a black and white dress and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a sword. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Seligman, pastor of the Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kelly, who have been spending the summer in Santa Fe, left on Wednesday evening for the home in Kansas City, expecting to return to this city, their vacation point in 1917. They were accompanied on their return home by Mrs. Kelly, who has been spending the past two weeks with them at the sanatorium.

Wientge-Manker

At the family home, up among the pines surrounded only by relatives and a few intimate friends, Mrs. Christina Wientge gave her third daughter, Miss Charlotte, in marriage to Mr. L. H. Manker, at eight-thirty o'clock, Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Hammond. The bride was attended by her youngest sister, Miss Anita, and Mr. Clyde Winters was the best man.

The bride was attired in a very beautiful gown of white crepe de chine, and the bride's maid was also in white.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. During the "excitement" Mr. and Mrs. Manker managed to make their "get-away" and boarded the Denver and Rio Grande train for Salt Lake City and other points of interest in Utah, to be gone a month, returning to Santa Fe where they will make their future home.

The bride is a Santa Fe girl, well known and a very popular. She is endowed with all the graces that go to make a splendid wife.

The bridegroom is a fine young man, and is in the employ of the New Mexico Central.

Monday Bridge Club

met with Mrs. H. C. Yontz, on Don Gaspar. Mrs. Hugh Gilmore won the prize.

Attorney General and Mrs. Frank Clancy are planning to leave on Saturday for Denver where Mr. Clancy will appear for the state in matters before the federal appellate court, one of the legal questions to be tested being the matter of the publicity department of the state land office and the right of that department to use the money derived from the state land sales to advertise the state. The question was decided favorably by Judge Pone and the Democrats who did not like it have appealed, under instructions of the United States attorney general's office.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Weed, of Brooklyn, N. Y. have been in the city during the past week, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. Weed have been making an extensive trip throughout the northeast and met Mr. and Mrs. Williams at Seattle, Hugh being in attendance at the Knights of Pythias conclave held in Oregon. The trip of Mr. and Mrs. Weed extended as far as Alaska and they came toward this state through Arizona where they stopped at the Petrified Forest and viewed the Painted Desert. They have left for their Brooklyn home accompanied by Mrs. Sarah Hudson, mother of Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Weed, who has been a guest at the Williams home for some months past. Mr. Weed is a most enthusiastic admirer of Santa Fe which he visited last year. He said that it was a joy to be in the old city once more and when reminded that he suggested a year ago that the time might come when Santa Fe would be his home, he declared that it would be an ideal place to stay. Everybody who met him here would be glad if he came back.

Tuesday Evening Bridge Club

met with Mrs. Jas. A. French, on Capitol Hill. Mrs. C. Max Wells won high score.

Miss Packer of Washington, D. C., formerly of Boston, who has been paying a short visit to Santa Fe and to old friends, was the inspiration for several dinner parties, among them being, one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Zook, on Palace Avenue; one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gontchey; one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Bishop; one at the home of Judge and Mrs. J. Hanna; and another at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Haynes. Miss Packer has been a frequent visitor to Santa Fe for several years past and has a host of friends who were rejoiced in the pleasure of a short visit with her. Miss Packer left Santa Fe with friends from the East overland by auto to Trinidad, Colo., from there she will continue her trip east to New York.

Miss Isabelle and Helen Walker left Thursday for Colorado, where Miss Walker will finish her senior year at the University of Colorado, at Boulder, and Miss Helen will enter the preparatory department of the same institution.

John Windsor was host at a very delightful party Tuesday evening. There were only a few guests. Dancin' was the leading feature of the evening's fun.

Miss Dorothy Griffin accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Walker, left Thursday morning for Denver, where Miss Griffin has accepted a position for the winter. Mrs. Walker will reside in Denver for the winter also.

Mrs. Leslie A. Gillett will give a large party Friday afternoon.

Misses Safford have taken apartments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Haynes on Johnson street, for the winter.

Informal Dinner Party
Miss Packer, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of honor at a very delightful dinner party one evening this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Haynes. The table was perfect in its appointments. The decorations were pink and white sweet peas. Besides the guest of honor and host, and hostess there were Governor and Mrs. William C. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Bishop, Mrs. L. B. Hanna, Mrs. Florence Bartlett and Mrs. Evelyn D. Castle.

Louise Glaum in "The Arvan"—Latest Triangle-Ince Play.

Sunday, September 10—The Arvan
William S. Hart, who is starred by the Triangle Kay-Bee in "The Arvan," plays the part of a rugged man of the desert, who, having been deceived of his fortune by vampire women of a lawless town, turns hatefully against the entire feminine sex. How he becomes ruler of a band of renegades in a mining camp, utterly despising women for ensnaring years until he is awakened to the code of his race by a gentle, fearless little girl who trusts him, is the dominant note of the story.

Thursday, September 14—Charlie Chaplin

Also "The Secret of the Submarine," a story of great interest, taken from a novel, prepared by Mr. Powell. Mr. Powell has participated as a correspondent in all the wars of recent years, and it is this actual viewing of war's ravages that entitles his opinions to the international hearing they always receive.

that in the motion picture there lived a way to reach all the people and brings to them the message of our preparedness.

"When I was invited to write the novelization of 'The Secret of the Submarine' I immediately assented when I learned that the message of preparedness would constitute an important part of the story, for I realize to the fullest extent the national influence of pictures, portraying, as this one will, a realism of besetting dangers and the falsity of our assumed national safety."

Friday, September 15—"Sold For Marriage"

Wednesday, September 14—Wife's Sacrifice

A great story with the famous actor, Robert Mantell as the star. This is one of the highest attractions on the screen.

COUNT DE BRIQUET (Robert B. Mantell), in the Fox Drama, "A Wife's Sacrifice," is the innocent victim of a plot drawn by the charms of George (Genevieve Hamper). The acting art of Mantell the Great and "The Woman with the Most Beautiful Face on Earth" combine effectively with the dramatic skill of J. Gordon Edwards, the director.

Mrs. Allie Kane this week received the sad news of the death of her cousin, Ex-Gov. John P. St. John, of Olathe, Kansas. He served two years as governor of that state. He was the Prohibitionist candidate for governor at one election and pulled the largest popular vote ever cast for a candidate of that party. He was 83 years old at the time of his death.
